

शास्त्री-तृतीयवर्षम्
चतुर्थपत्रम् आंग्लसाहित्यम्
शैक्षिकनिष्पत्तिः

Shastri V Semester ENGLISH LITERATURE Paper 4	Latin America: Short Stories - 1. Gabriel Garcia Marquez - " Balthazar's Marvellous Afternoon " 2. Octavia Paz - " The Blue bouquet " 3. Clarice Lispector - " Love " Poems by Pablo Neruda: " Fable of the Mermaid and the Drunks " "Ode to the Clothes " " Tonight I can Write "	Now in this semester, they move onto some interesting Latin American short stories. They can also have an insight of Pablo Neruda's poems. Neruda's views on the discriminatory treatment meted out to woman in the male dominated society, his philosophy and his poetic skills.	The Latin American short stories give them the analytical, comparative and critical mind to learn the various literary genres and to gauge the psychology of the society through their pragmatic application.
--	--	--	--

Shastri VI Semester ENGLISH LITERATURE Paper 4	Africa - Prose : Ngugi - " Decolonising the Mind " India - Novel : Rohinton Mistry - " Such a Long Journey " Play - Tendulkar - " Silence! The Court is in Session " Story - Basheer - " The world Renowned Nose "	Now, the students move to African writer Ngugi. Then they have a chance to read Indian novel, drama and story of famous writer Basheer. It gives them an opportunity to know the characters who are after all the replicas of such people existing in the society.	These glimpses of English Literature help the students to get acquainted to the higher rungs of the literary achievements. It also helps to prove the point mooted by our beloved PM, Modiji who asked the young and bright Sanskrit scholars to get the skills of English to effectively propagate Sanskrit and its study abroad. So, with that in mind our University can start Comparative Aesthetics, Comparative linguistics, and Comparative Literature as Optional Papers at PG level.
---	--	---	---